ORDER:

The Director Medical Education, Hyderabad has stated that two applications were received in respect of baby M. Durga Deepika (Recipient), D/o. Mr. M.V.R.V. Prasad Varma and Mrs A. Sasi Rupa (Donor), W/o. Mr. V. Ravi Kumar and also Mr. V. Abhishek Kondaty (Recipient) S/o. Mr. V. Ravi Kumar and Mrs. Vara Lakshmi (Donor), W/o. Mr. M.V.R.V. Prasad Varma from the Medical Superintendent, Krishna Institute of Medical Sciences for cross over kidney transplantation at their centre for (SWAP) donation as their immediate family members are not considered as prospective donors for kidney transplantation for different reasons, such as, blood group is not matching with each other and due to strong positive cross matches. The applications were put before the authorization committee for scrutiny to grant permission to undergo kidney transplantation and the committee have considered that the transplantation is altruistic in nature and permission granted. However, A.P. Human Organ Transplantation Act, 1994 presently does not mention about (SWAP) donation / cross over transplantation and requested the Govt. for necessary guidelines in the matter.

2. The recipient Sri K. Abhishek Kondaty requested the Govt. for permission to cross over kidney transplantation as his health condition is not good.

3. Government have examined the matter in detail and hereby accorded permission for cross over kidney transplantation by SWAP donation in respect of Baby M. Durga Deepika (Recipient) D/o. Mr. M.V.R.V. Prasad Varma and Mrs A. Sasi Rupa (Donor) W/o. Mr. V. Ravi Kumar and also Mr. V. Abhishek Kondaty (Recipient), S/o. Mr.V. Ravi Kumar and Mrs. Vara Lakshmi (Donor), W/o. Mr. M.V.R.V. Prasad Varma pending adoption of Central Act as a special case. Provided transplantation is altruistic in nature.

4. The DME, Hyderabad is therefore requested to take necessary action accordingly.
